Dear Dan:

The field support program, as we now understand all requirements, is summarized in the accompanying exhibits for the period July 1, 1957 through December 30, 1957.

25X1A

Exhibit A is a proposal covering the field support requirements to be covered by Contract [REDACTED]. The items of work in estimated man-months are set forth and summarized in a cost estimate. This proposal covers all the work which cannot be covered by separate contracts at fixed man-month prices. The work is set forth by major item and is identified to customer requirements in as far as possible. The estimated cost for this program is [REDACTED] the fixed fee [REDACTED] will be [REDACTED] and the total estimated cost, including fee, is [REDACTED]

The overseas field support to be covered under Contract [REDACTED] during this period is summarized by item and number of man-months in Exhibit B.

Exhibit C outlines the known requirements for FOG coverage during this period. It is our understanding that both the domestic and overseas requirements will be covered by separate contract now being prepared to commence 1 July 1957. However, we are carrying out this program of work at present and in the absence of separate contract coverage, we would expect that it would be an acceptable charge under [REDACTED] if domestic services and [REDACTED] if overseas services.

The requirements in support of Harry's program, as we now understand them, are set forth in Exhibit D, and it is our understanding that these will be separately covered by standard Air Force contracts now under negotiation. Until such time as these contracts are signed, it is our understanding that these overseas services will be acceptable charges to [REDACTED]

We are proceeding with all of these requirements based on the understandings set forth here. The purpose of this letter is to advise you of the work we are undertaking, our present understandings of the requirements, and the method of reimbursement so that you may advise us if we are not correct in these views.
